

DATA AND CONTROL SYSTEMS

INDEX for 1966

TITLE	Issue No: Page	TITLE	Issue No: Page	TITLE	Issue No: Page
A/S Regnecentralen	6 22	Effect of the White Paper on Investment, The	3 23	Opportunities for Smooth Oper- ators	12 34
Accounting Machines—The Three Generations	3 31	External Integration	2 20	Packaging Automation for Wider Consumption	11 26
Ad-Men at Brighton	1 40	Forms Business, The	4 37	Personality Profiles
Amsterdam Municipal Giro ..	11 22	Germany's Automated Auto- mobile Temple	12 28	Charles Coulter	11 15
Automatic Control in Electricity Supply	5 32	GIER Computer, The	6 24	Maurice Kendall	12 17
Automatic Reservation Message Switching at BEA	8 32	Handling the Output (Part 1) ..	1 28	Cecil Mead	5 31
British Computers in Eastern Europe	12 20	Handling the Output (Part 2) ..	3 28	Marion Murtagh and Bill Powell	6 32
Building a Budget Control System	10 28	Hanover Fair-1966	6 10	E R Nixon	7 16
Bureau for Printers, A	1 33	Honeywell-Emett Forget-me-Not Computer, The	10 24	Harry Ross	9 36
Call on Carlsberg, A	6 25	Hospital Automation (American Report)	3 36	Print Quality Control for Optical Character Recognition (Part 1)	8 26
Choosing a Computer		I/S Datacentralen	6 20	Print Quality Control for Optical Character Recognition (Part 2)	9 30
Part 9—Rent or Buy?	1 24	Industrial Film as a Communi- cator, The	12 27	Programmers A-Plenty!	10 45
Part 10—Compatibility	2 28	Introduction to Analogue Com- puting, An (Part 1)	6 26	Roll of the Small Computer, The	11 20
Part 11—Nationality	3 24	Introduction to Analogue Com- puting, An (Part 2)	7 30	Savoy Place Memories	2 37
Part 12—Judging Feasibility Reports	4 28	Mathematical Programming for the Businessman	5 20	Shadow Pricing	7 26
Part 3a—Punched Card, Visible Record and 'Tiny' Computers (Revise of July 1965 article)	7 20	Merchandising and ADP (Ameri- can Report)	11 18	Software and Systems in West Berlin	7 41
Part 4a—Magnetic File Com- puters (Revise of August 1965 article)	8 16	Minsk 22	12 23	Software for the Third Genera- tion (American Report) ..	1 36
CMC7 in Commerce	10 23	Need for Management Standards in Data Processing, The ..	9 26	Susan Goes to School	4 32
Come to the Fair	2 32	Neptune, by British Rail	9 44	Third Generation Accounting Machines
Computer Selection by Computer	2 31	Network Planning—An Aid to Management (Part 1) ..	4 20	Burroughs E1000 and E2000	5 35
Computer for Schools	1 41	Network Planning—An Aid to Management (Part 2) ..	5 28	Friden 6010 and 5010	7 35
Data Collection	9 20	Nicol—A Program for Small- Store 1900's	5 24	IBM 5400	10 15
Data Processing in Denmark ..	6 19	Numbers Game, The	12 24	NCR 395	4 27
Data Processing in Holland ..	10 32	Numerically Controlled Machine Tools	5 10	Olivetti Mercator	6 35
Department in the Job Hunt ..	8 24	On-Line Process Control (Part 1)	3 20	Remington Miniputer	8 38
Developing a Software Effort Cost Control	6 30	On-Line Process Control (Part 2)	4 24	Sadie, Susie and Dottie ..	9 39
Due-date Scheduling by Com- puter (Part 1)	10 34			Time-Sharing Opens the Way to Remote Operation and Mul- tiple Users (American Report)	12 32
Due-date Scheduling by Com- puter (Part 2)	11 30			Towards Integration of Industrial Control Systems	11 34
				Traffic Automation (Part 1) ..	1 20
				Traffic Automation (Part 2) ..	2 24
				Training on SPEC	3 32
				Twelve Billion Instructions ..	1 32

DATA AND CONTROL SYSTEMS

INDEX for 1966

TITLE	Issue No: Page	TITLE	Issue No: Page	TITLE	Issue No: Page
A/S Regnecentralen	6 22	Effect of the White Paper on Investment, The	3 23	Opportunities for Smooth Oper- ators	12 34
Accounting Machines—The Three Generations	3 31	External Integration	2 20	Packaging Automation for Wider Consumption	11 26
Ad-Men at Brighton	1 40	Forms Business, The	4 37	Personality Profiles
Amsterdam Municipal Giro ..	11 22	Germany's Automated Auto- mobile Temple	12 28	Charles Coulter	11 15
Automatic Control in Electricity Supply	5 32	GIER Computer, The	6 24	Maurice Kendall	12 17
Automatic Reservation Message Switching at BEA	8 32	Handling the Output (Part 1) ..	1 28	Cecil Mead	5 31
British Computers in Eastern Europe	12 20	Handling the Output (Part 2) ..	3 28	Marion Murtagh and Bill Powell	6 32
Building a Budget Control System	10 28	Hanover Fair-1966	6 10	E R Nixon	7 16
Bureau for Printers, A	1 33	Honeywell-Emett Forget-me-Not Computer, The	10 24	Harry Ross	9 36
Call on Carlsberg, A	6 25	Hospital Automation (American Report)	3 36	Print Quality Control for Optical Character Recognition (Part 1)	8 26
Choosing a Computer		I/S Datacentralen	6 20	Print Quality Control for Optical Character Recognition (Part 2)	9 30
Part 9—Rent or Buy?	1 24	Industrial Film as a Communi- cator, The	12 27	Programmers A-Plenty!	10 45
Part 10—Compatibility	2 28	Introduction to Analogue Com- puting, An (Part 1)	6 26	Roll of the Small Computer, The	11 20
Part 11—Nationality	3 24	Introduction to Analogue Com- puting, An (Part 2)	7 30	Savoy Place Memories	2 37
Part 12—Judging Feasibility Reports	4 28	Mathematical Programming for the Businessman	5 20	Shadow Pricing	7 26
Part 3a—Punched Card, Visible Record and 'Tiny' Computers (Revise of July 1965 article)	7 20	Merchandising and ADP (Ameri- can Report)	11 18	Software and Systems in West Berlin	7 41
Part 4a—Magnetic File Com- puters (Revise of August 1965 article)	8 16	Minsk 22	12 23	Software for the Third Genera- tion (American Report) ..	1 36
CMC7 in Commerce	10 23	Need for Management Standards in Data Processing, The ..	9 26	Susan Goes to School	4 32
Come to the Fair	2 32	Neptune, by British Rail	9 44	Third Generation Accounting Machines
Computer Selection by Computer	2 31	Network Planning—An Aid to Management (Part 1) ..	4 20	Burroughs E1000 and E2000	5 35
Computer for Schools	1 41	Network Planning—An Aid to Management (Part 2) ..	5 28	Friden 6010 and 5010	7 35
Data Collection	9 20	Nicol—A Program for Small- Store 1900's	5 24	IBM 5400	10 15
Data Processing in Denmark ..	6 19	Numbers Game, The	12 24	NCR 395	4 27
Data Processing in Holland ..	10 32	Numerically Controlled Machine Tools	5 10	Olivetti Mercator	6 35
Department in the Job Hunt ..	8 24	On-Line Process Control (Part 1)	3 20	Remington Miniputer	8 38
Developing a Software Effort Cost Control	6 30	On-Line Process Control (Part 2)	4 24	Sadie, Susie and Dottie ..	9 39
Due-date Scheduling by Com- puter (Part 1)	10 34			Time-Sharing Opens the Way to Remote Operation and Mul- tiple Users (American Report)	12 32
Due-date Scheduling by Com- puter (Part 2)	11 30			Towards Integration of Industrial Control Systems	11 34
				Traffic Automation (Part 1) ..	1 20
				Traffic Automation (Part 2) ..	2 24
				Training on SPEC	3 32
				Twelve Billion Instructions ..	1 32

I N D E X

DATA AND CONTROL SYSTEMS

INDEX for 1966

TITLE	Issue No: Page	TITLE	Issue No: Page	TITLE	Issue No: Page
A/S Regnecentralen	6 22	Effect of the White Paper on Investment, The	3 23	Opportunities for Smooth Oper- ators	12 34
Accounting Machines—The Three Generations	3 31	External Integration	2 20	Packaging Automation for Wider Consumption	11 26
Ad-Men at Brighton	1 40	Forms Business, The	4 37	Personality Profiles
Amsterdam Municipal Giro ..	11 22	Germany's Automated Auto- mobile Temple	12 28	Charles Coulter	11 15
Automatic Control in Electricity Supply	5 32	GIER Computer, The	6 24	Maurice Kendall	12 17
Automatic Reservation Message Switching at BEA	8 32	Handling the Output (Part 1) ..	1 28	Cecil Mead	5 31
British Computers in Eastern Europe	12 20	Handling the Output (Part 2) ..	3 28	Marion Murtagh and Bill Powell	6 32
Building a Budget Control System	10 26	Hanover Fair-1966	6 10	E R Nixon	7 14
Bureau for Printers, A	1 33	Honeywell-Emett Forget-me-Not Computer, The	10 24	Harry Ross	9 36
Call on Carlsberg, A	6 25	Hospital Automation (American Report)	3 36	Print Quality Control for Optical Character Recognition (Part 1)	8 26
Choosing a Computer		I/S Datacentralen	6 20	Print Quality Control for Optical Character Recognition (Part 2)	9 30
Part 9—Rent or Buy?	1 24	Industrial Film as a Communi- cator, The	12 27	Programmers A-Plenty!	10 45
Part 10—Compatibility	2 28	Introduction to Analogue Com- puting, An (Part 1)	6 26	Roll of the Small Computer, The	11 20
Part 11—Nationality	3 24	Introduction to Analogue Com- puting, An (Part 2)	7 30	Savoy Place Memories	2 37
Part 12—Judging Feasibility Reports	4 28	Mathematical Programming for the Businessman	5 20	Shadow Pricing	7 26
Part 3a—Punched Card, Visible Record and 'Tiny' Computers (Revise of July 1965 article)	7 20	Merchandising and ADP (Ameri- can Report)	11 18	Software and Systems in West Berlin	7 41
Part 4a—Magnetic File Com- puters (Revise of August 1965 article)	8 16	Minsk 22	12 23	Software for the Third Genera- tion (American Report) ..	1 36
CMC7 in Commerce	10 23	Need for Management Standards in Data Processing, The ..	9 26	Susan Goes to School	4 32
Come to the Fair	2 32	Neptune, by British Rail	9 44	Third Generation Accounting Machines
Computer Selection by Computer	2 31	Network Planning—An Aid to Management (Part 1) ..	4 20	Burroughs E1000 and E2000	5 35
Computer for Schools	1 41	Network Planning—An Aid to Management (Part 2) ..	5 28	Friden 6010 and 5010	7 35
Data Collection	9 20	Nicol—A Program for Small- Store 1900's	5 24	IBM 6400	10 15
Data Processing in Denmark ..	6 19	Numbers Game, The	12 24	NCR 395	4 27
Data Processing in Holland ..	10 32	Numerically Controlled Machine Tools	5 10	Olivetti Mercator	6 35
Department in the Job Hunt ..	8 24	On-Line Process Control (Part 1)	3 20	Remington Miniputer	8 38
Developing a Software Effort Cost Control	6 30	On-Line Process Control (Part 2)	4 24	Sadie, Susie and Dottie ..	9 39
Due-date Scheduling by Com- puter (Part 1)	10 34			Time-Sharing Opens the Way to Remote Operation and Mul- tiple Users (American Report)	12 32
Due-date Scheduling by Com- puter (Part 2)	11 30			Towards Integration of Industrial Control Systems	11 34
				Traffic Automation (Part 1) ..	1 20
				Traffic Automation (Part 2) ..	2 24
				Training on SPEC	3 32
				Twelve Billion Instructions ..	1 32